

Times-Virginian

Established 1892
Circulation 11, Robinson, Editor
Subscription $1.50 Per Year

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Appomattox, Virginia, under Act of Congress of March 3, 1879. All communications for publication should reach the office not later than Wednesday morning each week.

The columns of the Times-Virginian are open for the discussion of any subject affecting the public good.

Address A. I. Correspondence To The Times-Virginian, Appomattox, Virginia.

OLD LIBERTY

Appomattox should be justly proud of the long years of service of old Liberty Baptist church, and will gladly join in the spirit of the great "homecoming day," planned for the Sunday, The Times-Virginian congratulates the congregation on the event and hopes it will be a great success.

The hope of America is the character of its churches. The men and the women who worship in the church of their choice, these are the men and the women who should direct the nation. The boys and the girls who train themselves in Sunday schools and in a religious environment, these are the true leaders of tomorrow.

No less brilliant that Liberty's past is its future. Celebrate with its congregation on the occasion of its "homecoming."

A CREDO

A beautiful building, costly printing equipment, massive presses, fine offices, these do not make a newspaper.

A typewriter, a battered press, a galley rack, and linotype; these are not the keys to a free press.

A newspaper lives or dies from within, according to the human understanding of its publisher, the support it receives in its territory, the soul of its people.

That is a newspaper. Soul, heart, cooperation, these are a living, throbbing thing, of the people and for the people.

The weekly newspaper is the greatest force in agricultural America today. It is back of every worthwhile plan, serves every institution of the community, leads the way to progress and prosperity.

And always going in the vanguard is the ideal of service. It's YOUR paper and reflects the soul of YOUR community.

Advertising unlocks the door to bigger business. Do great national business firms spend millions on advertising because they are large and can afford it, or are they large because they were progressive enough to advertise when they were small?

Welcome every tourist and be informed so you can guide them to the many historical spots in Appomattox.

Fall is a good time to clean up around your premises. A good time for canning, and a good time to buy!

Communication

Appomattox, Va., Sept. 22, 1931.
Editor, Times-Virginian:
Sir:

I wish to correct an impression left by an item in your columns recently. I have no criticism to make of the teachers at Liberty Chapel or of the way the school is conducted.

Respectfully,

J. S. Kinney

666

LIQUOR WITHERS
Relieves a Headache or Neuralgia in 30 minutes, checks a Cold the first day, and checks Malaria in three days.
666 Salve for Baby's Cold

W. D. DIUGUID
INCORPORATED
FUNDRAISING DIRECTORS
Special Service Rendered
To Appomattox people when in need of our services
PHONES 11-325 LYNCHBURG, VA
AMBULANCE SERVICE

FATHER DARKLEAF'S COLUMN

BY CH. R.

FATHER DARKLEAF, a sleuthy old coper, takes his bow and all that sorta thing, and blushes one of the 13 blushes still in his system.

YANCY Abbit, colored, left 4 choice pigs in front of Burg's corner Saturday afternoon, and 2 of them decided to go places. They ran amuck over the town's busiest block until the Ferguson boys pulled a hero act and caught them. Father Darkleaf was on hand, but pig-calling just ain't in his repertoire.

AND, say how about the size of that Saturday afternoon crowd in Appomattox? Sergeant Cawthorn will need a flock of traffic cops, eh what?

RANDON Musings... they used to roll tobacco to Lynchburg in a hoghead... the Sunday, The Times-Virginian congratulates the congregation on the event and hopes it will be a great success.

Dr. Tucker's home at Buckingham was once the county clerk's and treasurer's office. ... gypsies camped near the fair grounds... hitching horse shoes back of Burke's store... posters on the door of the house at the old school house... I'd like one of Pamplin's clay pipes... boy, oh boy, this September sun.

C. F. ABBITT, down Vera way, had 8 or 10 anxious boys on his hands Saturday afternoon. They worked on the road force and the paymaster was tardy and were they anxious to get their money and get to town!

UNCLE Spiller Trent, Virginia's oldest newspaper veteran, these old folks just lie around all day thinking up word for him to do. There, there Spiller!

I read a poem the other night about an old lady who sits up in the clouds and cuts up old moons to make stars out of them.

DON Moses invited Father Darkleaf to a Sunday school class picnic one night, last week, and Father Darkleaf got there, but just after all the "cats" were gone and everybody had departed.

AND I'll bet things are dull around your house in the morning now, with all the children at school. S'long 'til next week folks.

YESTERYEARS
From the Appomattox & Buckingham Times of September 26, 1906.

Revival services start at Appomattox Methodist church, led by Dr. W. W. Pratt, assisted by Mr. Parley.

Nat Morris suffers misfortune of losing 2 horses.

Mrs. Robert Martin thrown from buggy on way to Falling River picnic, but not badly hurt.

W. E. McDonald, of Warren, secured to be principal of Appomattox high school.

State Senator A. F. Thomas delivers interesting address to Appomattox farmers.

Recipes
Corn Pudding: 3 eggs, 2 cups corn, 2 tablespoons melted butter, 1 teaspoon salt, pepper, 2 cups milk. Beat eggs and add all other ingredients, salt to taste. Pour into greased baking dish and bake in moderate oven for 1 hour, or until set in the center.

CHAS. F. JAMES
DRUGGIST
APPOMATTOX, VIRGINIA

PREScription Specialists
PROMPT SERVICE
REASONABLE PRICES
CLAIBORNE DRUG CO.
828 Church St. Lynchburg, Va.
CORNER NINTH QUARTER BLOCK FROM BUS STATION

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

THE SPREAD OF CHRISTIANITY IN ASIA

Sunday School Lesson for September 27.

Golden Text: Acts 14:27

Many scholars have been away during the summer on vacation and consequently missed several of the lessons during the past quarter. Therefore, the review lesson of this Sunday should be carefully prepared.

Begin by reading the first 15 chapters in Acts. Study the map in the quarterly and locate the places mentioned.

The lessons for the quarter have featured personal evangelism and the remarkable preaching of the early ministers. Peter cried, "we must obey God rather than man," and miracles attracted the attention of the people to the new faith.

The order of deacons was established and church organization was started. The poor came in for relief and the stewardship of giving money for social service became an early ideal of the church.

Stephen became the first martyr; Phillip did wonderful preaching in Samaria, and Saul of Tarsus, was changed from persecutor to evangelist. Think of the things that caused Christianity to spread in the early days and apply those things in the modern church.

Be as Booster: support your community's schools, churches, and churches.

If pigs didn't make such hogs of themselves, they'd live longer.

Carroll—McCormick
Miss Estelle McCormick and Otto Ray Carroll, both of Ex Creek, were married in Lynchburg last Friday by the Rev. Gray L. Liggan.

Entertain at Bridge
Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr., entertained at bridge Thursday night at the home of Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr.

Saul of Tarsus, was changed from persecutor to evangelist. Think of the things that caused Christianity to spread in the early days and apply those things in the modern church.

Be as Booster: support your community's schools, churches, and churches.

If pigs didn't make such hogs of themselves, they'd live longer.

Carroll—McCormick
Miss Estelle McCormick and Otto Ray Carroll, both of Ex Creek, were married in Lynchburg last Friday by the Rev. Gray L. Liggan.

Entertain at Bridge
Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr., entertained at bridge Thursday night at the home of Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr.

Saul of Tarsus, was changed from persecutor to evangelist. Think of the things that caused Christianity to spread in the early days and apply those things in the modern church.

Be as Booster: support your community's schools, churches, and churches.

If pigs didn't make such hogs of themselves, they'd live longer.

Carroll—McCormick
Miss Estelle McCormick and Otto Ray Carroll, both of Ex Creek, were married in Lynchburg last Friday by the Rev. Gray L. Liggan.

Entertain at Bridge
Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr., entertained at bridge Thursday night at the home of Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr.

Saul of Tarsus, was changed from persecutor to evangelist. Think of the things that caused Christianity to spread in the early days and apply those things in the modern church.

Be as Booster: support your community's schools, churches, and churches.

If pigs didn't make such hogs of themselves, they'd live longer.

Carroll—McCormick
Miss Estelle McCormick and Otto Ray Carroll, both of Ex Creek, were married in Lynchburg last Friday by the Rev. Gray L. Liggan.

Entertain at Bridge
Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr., entertained at bridge Thursday night at the home of Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr.

Saul of Tarsus, was changed from persecutor to evangelist. Think of the things that caused Christianity to spread in the early days and apply those things in the modern church.

Be as Booster: support your community's schools, churches, and churches.

If pigs didn't make such hogs of themselves, they'd live longer.

Carroll—McCormick
Miss Estelle McCormick and Otto Ray Carroll, both of Ex Creek, were married in Lynchburg last Friday by the Rev. Gray L. Liggan.

Entertain at Bridge
Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr., entertained at bridge Thursday night at the home of Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr.

Saul of Tarsus, was changed from persecutor to evangelist. Think of the things that caused Christianity to spread in the early days and apply those things in the modern church.

Be as Booster: support your community's schools, churches, and churches.

If pigs didn't make such hogs of themselves, they'd live longer.

SOCIETY NOTES

Bridge Party

Miss Earle Patterson entertained at bridge Friday evening.

Her guests were: Misses Jac Hancock, Catherine Gills, Lillian Caldwell, Vera Smith, Elaine McDermott, Kate O'Brien, Nell Cawthorn, Bobbie Jones, Eula May Burke, Emily Harvey and Mrs. Dick Lawson. The gentlemen present were: Paul Drinkard, Ned Hancock, John Curtis Caldwell, Dick Lawson, Reggie Stanley, Harold Spencer, George Stark, Joel Flood, John Carroll Stanley, Lewis McDermott, Willie Smith, Pop Wilkins and George Abbit.

High score honors were presented to Eula May Burke and John Curtis Caldwell and low score to Lillian Caldwell and Harold Spencer.

Entertain at Bridge
Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr., entertained at bridge Thursday night at the home of Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr.

Saul of Tarsus, was changed from persecutor to evangelist. Think of the things that caused Christianity to spread in the early days and apply those things in the modern church.

Be as Booster: support your community's schools, churches, and churches.

If pigs didn't make such hogs of themselves, they'd live longer.

Carroll—McCormick
Miss Estelle McCormick and Otto Ray Carroll, both of Ex Creek, were married in Lynchburg last Friday by the Rev. Gray L. Liggan.

Entertain at Bridge
Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr., entertained at bridge Thursday night at the home of Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr.

Saul of Tarsus, was changed from persecutor to evangelist. Think of the things that caused Christianity to spread in the early days and apply those things in the modern church.

Be as Booster: support your community's schools, churches, and churches.

If pigs didn't make such hogs of themselves, they'd live longer.

Carroll—McCormick
Miss Estelle McCormick and Otto Ray Carroll, both of Ex Creek, were married in Lynchburg last Friday by the Rev. Gray L. Liggan.

Entertain at Bridge
Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr., entertained at bridge Thursday night at the home of Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr.

Saul of Tarsus, was changed from persecutor to evangelist. Think of the things that caused Christianity to spread in the early days and apply those things in the modern church.

Be as Booster: support your community's schools, churches, and churches.

If pigs didn't make such hogs of themselves, they'd live longer.

Carroll—McCormick
Miss Estelle McCormick and Otto Ray Carroll, both of Ex Creek, were married in Lynchburg last Friday by the Rev. Gray L. Liggan.

Entertain at Bridge
Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr., entertained at bridge Thursday night at the home of Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr.

Saul of Tarsus, was changed from persecutor to evangelist. Think of the things that caused Christianity to spread in the early days and apply those things in the modern church.

Be as Booster: support your community's schools, churches, and churches.

If pigs didn't make such hogs of themselves, they'd live longer.

Carroll—McCormick
Miss Estelle McCormick and Otto Ray Carroll, both of Ex Creek, were married in Lynchburg last Friday by the Rev. Gray L. Liggan.

Entertain at Bridge
Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr., entertained at bridge Thursday night at the home of Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr.

Saul of Tarsus, was changed from persecutor to evangelist. Think of the things that caused Christianity to spread in the early days and apply those things in the modern church.

Be as Booster: support your community's schools, churches, and churches.

If pigs didn't make such hogs of themselves, they'd live longer.

Carroll—McCormick
Miss Estelle McCormick and Otto Ray Carroll, both of Ex Creek, were married in Lynchburg last Friday by the Rev. Gray L. Liggan.

Entertain at Bridge
Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr., entertained at bridge Thursday night at the home of Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr.

Saul of Tarsus, was changed from persecutor to evangelist. Think of the things that caused Christianity to spread in the early days and apply those things in the modern church.

Be as Booster: support your community's schools, churches, and churches.

If pigs didn't make such hogs of themselves, they'd live longer.

Carroll—McCormick
Miss Estelle McCormick and Otto Ray Carroll, both of Ex Creek, were married in Lynchburg last Friday by the Rev. Gray L. Liggan.

Entertain at Bridge
Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr., entertained at bridge Thursday night at the home of Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Jr.

Saul of Tarsus, was changed from persecutor to evangelist. Think of the things that caused Christianity to spread in the early days and apply those things in the modern church.

Be as Booster: support your community's schools, churches, and churches.

If pigs didn't make such hogs of themselves, they'd live longer.

Wise Birds

Learn from experience...

Has the depression hurt you?

Well, learn this lesson and be happy...

Put away some of all money you get for a rainy day.

We pay 4 percent on time deposits

Farmers National Bank

Appomattox, Virginia

State Fair

The Richmond state fair opens October 5 this year, and will feature a brilliant array of exhibits and shows.

Forest View

FOREST VIEW.—We bid farewell to our good editor, Mr. A. H. Clement, again, and say "howdy do" to our new one, who has a great progress with his new undertaking.

A good crop of tobacco was housed in this community. The corn has also been cut.

Miss Mamie Inge spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. W. T. Nash.

Mrs. Annie Odor is getting along nicely after being sick for quite a while. She spent several days last week with her sister, Mrs. W. C. Lee, at Wesley Chapel.

Miss Elva Stratton returned to Appomattox school, where she is a member of the faculty.

Miss Ethel Alvis left last week for Richmond, Ky., where she will be supervisor in the state college.

Quite a number of our young people have gone away to school. Miss Ethel Alvis to Fredericksburg State College, Miss Hazel Taylor to Duke University, N. C. John Alvis to V. P. L. Miss Doris Caldwell to East Radford State College, and Gary Carson, Jr., to V. P. L.

Miss Frances Stratton, who has held a position in North Carolina for quite a while, is home on a two week's vacation before entering Yale University, where she will study in the school of nursing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Neighbors, Jr., and children, of Greensboro, N. C., are the guests of Mr. Neighbors' parents.

Chap

CHAP.—A Mr. Hicks from Brookneal, was drowned in Rushes pond one night last week. His body was recovered after two hours.

Mrs. C. C. Wooten still continues on the sick list.

Mrs. Tom Marsh, mother of Mrs. Dean Pugh, returned from a Lynchburg hospital much improved.

Mrs. Myers spent several days last week with her son, Obey Myers.

Mrs. Annie Hendrick and son, Charlie, spent Thursday night with J. T. Ferguson.

Mrs. John Pugh and Eamon Pugh visited Mrs. Annie Powell Thursday night.

Mrs. Annie Powell and Atwill Powell visited in the home of S. B. Fore Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Fore and Mary Fore spent Saturday afternoon in the home of W. T. Pugh.

State Fair

The Richmond state fair opens October 5 this year, and will feature a brilliant array of exhibits and shows.

Forest View

FOREST VIEW.—We bid farewell to our good editor, Mr. A. H. Clement, again, and say "howdy do" to our new one, who has a great progress with his new undertaking.

A good crop of tobacco was housed in this community. The corn has also been cut.

Miss Mamie Inge spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. W. T. Nash.

Mrs. Annie Odor is getting along nicely after being sick for quite a while. She spent several days last week with her sister, Mrs. W. C. Lee, at Wesley Chapel.

Miss Elva Stratton returned to Appomattox school, where she is a member of the faculty.

Miss Ethel Alvis left last week for Richmond, Ky., where she will be supervisor in the state college.

Quite a number of our young people have gone away to school. Miss Ethel Alvis to Fredericksburg State College, Miss Hazel Taylor to Duke University, N. C. John Alvis to V. P. L. Miss Doris Caldwell to East Radford State College, and Gary Carson, Jr., to V. P. L.

Miss Frances Stratton, who has held a position in North Carolina for quite a while, is home on a two week's vacation before entering Yale University, where she will study in the school of nursing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Neighbors, Jr., and children, of Greensboro, N. C., are the guests of Mr. Neighbors' parents.

Chap

CHAP.—A Mr. Hicks from Brookneal, was drowned in Rushes pond one night last week. His body was recovered after two hours.

Mrs. C. C. Wooten still continues on the sick list.

Mrs. Tom Marsh, mother of Mrs. Dean Pugh, returned from a Lynchburg hospital much improved.

Mrs. Myers spent several days last week with her son, Obey Myers.

Mrs. Annie Hendrick and son, Charlie, spent Thursday night with J. T. Ferguson.

Mrs. John Pugh and Eamon Pugh visited Mrs. Annie Powell Thursday night.

Mrs. Annie Powell and Atwill Powell visited in the home of S. B. Fore Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Fore and Mary Fore spent Saturday afternoon in the home of W. T. Pugh.

State Fair

The Richmond state fair opens October 5 this year, and will feature a brilliant array of exhibits and shows.

Forest View

FOREST VIEW.—We bid farewell to our good editor, Mr. A. H. Clement, again, and say "howdy do" to our new one, who has a great progress with his new undertaking.

A good crop of tobacco was housed in this community. The corn has also been cut.

Miss Mamie Inge spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. W. T. Nash.

Mrs. Annie Odor is getting along nicely after being sick for quite a while. She spent several days last week with her sister, Mrs. W. C. Lee, at Wesley Chapel.

Miss Elva Stratton returned to Appomattox school, where she is a member of the faculty.

Miss Ethel Alvis left last week for Richmond, Ky., where she will be supervisor in the state college.

Quite a number of our young people have gone away to school. Miss Ethel Alvis to Fredericksburg State College, Miss Hazel Taylor to Duke University, N. C. John Alvis to V. P. L. Miss Doris Caldwell to East Radford State College, and Gary Carson, Jr., to V. P. L.

Miss Frances Stratton, who has held a position in North Carolina for quite a while, is home on a two week's vacation before entering Yale University, where she will study in the school of nursing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Neighbors, Jr., and children, of Greensboro, N. C., are the guests of Mr. Neighbors' parents.

Chap

CHAP.—A Mr. Hicks from Brookneal, was drowned in Rushes pond one night last week. His body was recovered after two hours.

Mrs. C. C. Wooten still continues on the sick list.

Mrs. Tom Marsh, mother of Mrs. Dean Pugh, returned from a Lynchburg hospital much improved.

Mrs. Myers spent several days last week with her son, Obey Myers.

Mrs. Annie Hendrick and son, Charlie, spent Thursday night with J. T. Ferguson.

Mrs. John Pugh and Eamon Pugh visited Mrs. Annie Powell Thursday night.

Mrs. Annie Powell and Atwill Powell visited in the home of S. B. Fore Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Fore and Mary Fore spent Saturday afternoon in the home of W. T. Pugh.

State Fair

The Richmond state fair opens October 5 this year, and will feature a brilliant array of exhibits and shows.

Forest View